Dear Sir,

The Sports Authority of India believes that all our future sports champions are in schools today and it is here that we must reach out to spot and nurture sporting talent.

2. Accordingly, Sports Authority of India (SAI) have joined hands with School Sports Promotion Foundation (SSPF), a non-profit philanthropy, which has launched "National Talent-Search & Nurture" initiative, a very structured and sustained programme that would be conducted every year at the District, State & National level.

3. The focus is on students/players between the age group of 10 to 15 years and would progressively cover all sports; team or individual. However, in its inaugural year, it has introduced Football and Cricket.
