Dear Sir,

1. Under instructions from and on behalf of my client "The Council for the Indian School Certificate Examinations (CISCE)", who has since placed with me relevant documents and online articles on the captioned matter, I serve you the instant legal notice.
2. My client has come across two misinformed and malicious articles on your website "<https://icsehelp.com>" which is titled "CISCE Sem-2 Exam: Emergency Meeting Start, Gerry Arathoon Advisory, Check Here".
<https://icsehelp.com/cisce-sem-2-exam-emergency-meeting-start-gerry-> arathoon-advisory-check-here/ and "CISCE in trouble: Will ICSE/ISC follow New Education Policy? Get latest Update"<https://icsehelp.com/cisce-in-trouble-will-icse-isc-follow-new-education-policy/>. The articles carry unverified and speculative information relating to level of question papers, guidelines, checking procedure of the upcoming Semester-2 Exams." In the second article, there is contained speculative information regarding implementation of New Education Policy, training of teachers, textbooks and syllabus. It casts malicious aspersions on the CISCE; its management and administration.

3. My client was astonished to see that you published misleading information in the name of Mr. Gerry Arathoon, Chief Executive and Secretary of the Council for the Indian School Certificate Examination. Such speculative and inaccurate reporting will cause unwarranted tension and apprehension to the students and parents. Further such false information is detrimental to the interest of students and confuses them. In already tumultuous and unpredictable times fostering conjectures and anxiety is unwarranted.
